Harriet Litz began her career on Wall Street where she became a Certified Public Accountant while working with major money center and investment banks. She returned home to Philadelphia in 1990 and ultimately earned her law degree from the James E. Beasley School of Law at Temple University, graduating with honors in various disciplines.

Since 1992, Harriet's practical and hands-on experience includes wills, estates and trusts: (1) from Pennsylvania and New Jersey, (2) with assets in multiple states and internationally, (3) valued in multi-millions but also insolvencies, (4) settling by court proceeding or family agreement, and (5) all related taxation.

Harriet also concentrates her practice on business and corporate law including assisting with business sales, corporate and LLC formations, shareholder agreements, partnerships, dissolutions, succession, contracts, disputes, and litigation. Harriet's business experience is influenced heavily by her extensive participation in civil and commercial litigation proceedings. She works in a network of civil and commercial litigators.

Harriet is a member of the American Association of Attorney-CPAs, of the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Bars, and of the Montgomery County Estate Planning Council.

Harriet lives with her husband and two children and their dogs, cats, birds and fish.
